

Fee Survey Results October 2017

Registered childminders are self employed and they may individually decide what to charge for their service. The JACC recently conducted a fee survey amongst its 78 members.

48 members completed the survey. We hope you find the results helpful.

81% of the 48 respondents are available full-time, all year around
Less than half of these 39 respondents also offer part-time places

Fees per hour were declared as:

The JACC recommends that registered childminders include paid holiday in their agreements. These vary in expectation, as shown:

